Housing Board, Hyderabad, as illegal, ultra-vires and contrary to the principles of natural justice, null and void and set aside the same and pass such other suitable orders.

Heard the counsel.

It is stated that in similar writ petitions, this Court already heard and disposed of the matters.

In view of the same, the petitioners are given liberty to approach the appellate Court and seek appropriate orders and the respondents would maintain status quo obtaining as on today for a period of four weeks and the observations if any made by this Court would not come in the way of the Appellate Court in considering the question of limitation.

With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
